

P. Caraway and week-end with Rev. Erman, of Thomas-

Club will meet at 3 o'clock with will preach Saturday evening at 7 day morning at 11

and family, who out two miles east Red Springs this filled Elder J. R. ent at Lawyers ap morning, assist-day morning, as-

E. Moore, of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mrs. E. L. Moore, Mrs. Henry Horne, attended the funeral e Sunday.

union meeting at church, colored, of Wadesboro near on Saturday before in January. The l be by Revs. J. H. anner.

ey, who lived in while several years been secretary of r of commerce for n elected secretary hamber of com-y married a daugh-ddy, of Albemarle.

state horticulturist, demonstrations in eek as follows: At me, Thursday, Jan. : E. G. Jones' home, 'clock; at home of Niven, Friday, Jan.

early as is possible.

Mr. Charles Uren, manager of the silk mill, has received instructions from the head office of the Singleton Silk Manufacturing Co. to close the mill down indefinitely, only a watchman being retained.

Hon. O. Max Gardner through an invitation of the Anson County Agricultural Society will deliver an address to the citizens of Anson county next Tuesday, Jan. 11th at 2 P. M.

Marriage license has been issued to Mr. Will Thomas Nash and Miss Alice E. Hasty, daughter of John A. Hasty; also to Mr. Alonzo Griggs and Mrs. Bessie Johnson Kelly.

A garage in the Mont Calm section belonging to Dr. P. D. Ross and used by a colored man was burned last night.

Mr. Frank L. Whitman underwent a serious operation in a Charlotte hospital last Tuesday, and is now getting along as well as could be expected.

Don't miss the opportunity of hearing Hon. O. Max Gardner next Tuesday at 2 P. M. at Wadesboro on practical farming.

Mrs. R. B. Boylin and daughter, Anna, have returned from Jacksonville, Fla., where they spent the holidays.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Smith, a son.

Calvary Episcopal Church.

Tomorrow, Friday, Jan. 7th, will be observed as a day of prayer for the Bishop's Crusade. The day will begin with a service of the Holy Communion at 8 A. M., after which, until 7:30 P. M., members of the parish in groups of two will be in the church for one-hour periods each, offering their prayers and intercessions for the purposes of the Crusade. Then will follow a short service with an address by the rector.

Fashion Authorities
Every Day we receive ing what the Leading
We have a Dress (When of Wear.)
Information.

WE
"Wel

BRAS

The Living

THE SAV
MENT TH
IT CAN B