

ence convened the
inced that it had e proceedings on
would be unable ce which might ically invites a menting. It is well that fashion has decreed short skirts or the women, but now that lo ger ones are coming into vogue I say the new commissioners to look into this matter of careless ting.

ONE IN LESTED.

3.—The wage dis Brotherhood of
and the Order of
s, on one hand,
roads on the oth-
of a conference
leaders were to
of a strike vote
ong the 82,000
was conceded the whelmingly for a
ot mean a walk-
e however. The un-
arbitration under was the case in ids.

Mr. Robert Singleton Dead.
Mr. Robert Singleton DIED yesterday morning at his home in Augusta, Ga., after an illness for several weeks. The funeral was held in Augusta today.

Mr. Singleton was well known and had many friends in Wadesboro, he having had charge of the silk mill here until about six years ago, when he moved to Augusta to take charge of a mill there. He married Miss Mollie Dabbs, of Anson, and survived by his wife and by six children: Messrs Sam, Russell, James Robbie and May Singleton.

In Memoriam

On Saturday, July 28th, 1913, at 3 p. m., the sweet gentle spirit of my dear friend, Mrs. Allelia Gray aged forty-three years answered the roll call of heaven, that peaceful rest working till the reaur have never known a woman, nor one mor
family, and always friends. Sweet and yet always doing g
the final summons c
deserved the comfort
"Well done, good and servant, enter thou into the joy of thou Lord." The world is has lived; her tender devotion to her family has shown itself in many ways, and her sweet influence will be felt for years to come.

l the roads vio-
it is not known
l can be reached
emptly amends
-increasing the
ers.—Both sides
a bill as superior
d of three which isibility on the
third, or neutral,
rt. Tuesday.
n, affray; nol
d Gilbert Ingram,
tenced, to two
be worked on
ned $15.00 and oing liquor for Heg Marshall, af-
5.00 and cost;
00 and cost.

little realty.
Of the Christians the same has been true. Paul had no ing. The first preachers wen place to place—homeless.
One of the traits of miss e today is that those people n can have no home.
Yet the people of God have home—an home not made hands, eternal in the heavens.
has been our dwelling place generations."

In the Hebrew language the two words that much and they differ in g one not like ch othe small nant. One of the words
"dwelling"—a house domic other means "refuge a fort defence. In this P the w used the means "e", a cile. The the rest the Ps built upon that sta at in way as show G he fo
the bulw, the defence of hi
ple. Both he idea the hom the refuge t here.

When the st says tha
has "been hing place generations ows God's to be our d and refuge.
God has de his people
us is an ev of what he w for us. has been a
and a refuge the generation fore us he w to us a hom tower of def

But if we v the peace protection of home we mu adapted to it. aptability lie the base of tra ility and sec Agriculturalists tell us that have developed wheat in th north that can be grown in the summer. It matures and is nered and ground into flour in